Lichtenberger Writes Exotic DVM Papers of the Year

Marla Lichtenberger, DVM, Dipl ACVECC, received the $1000 cash award for the Exotic DVM Paper of the Year at the recent International Conference on Exotics (ICE) held in Bonita Springs, Florida. The acknowledgment is presented annually by Exotic DVM Veterinary Magazine to the author of the paper selected by its readers as the one most clinically relevant and applicable to exotic pet practice. Two papers tied for the award this year and both were written by Dr. Lichtenberger: Fluid Resuscitation and Nutritional Support in Rabbits with Gastric Stasis or Gastrointestinal Obstruction (Vol 7.2) and Shock, Fluid Therapy, Anesthesia and Analgesia in the Ferret (Vol 7.2). Dr. Lichtenberger lives in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
